

Brief

Top 10 Highest Paid Boards in 2018

September 4, 2019

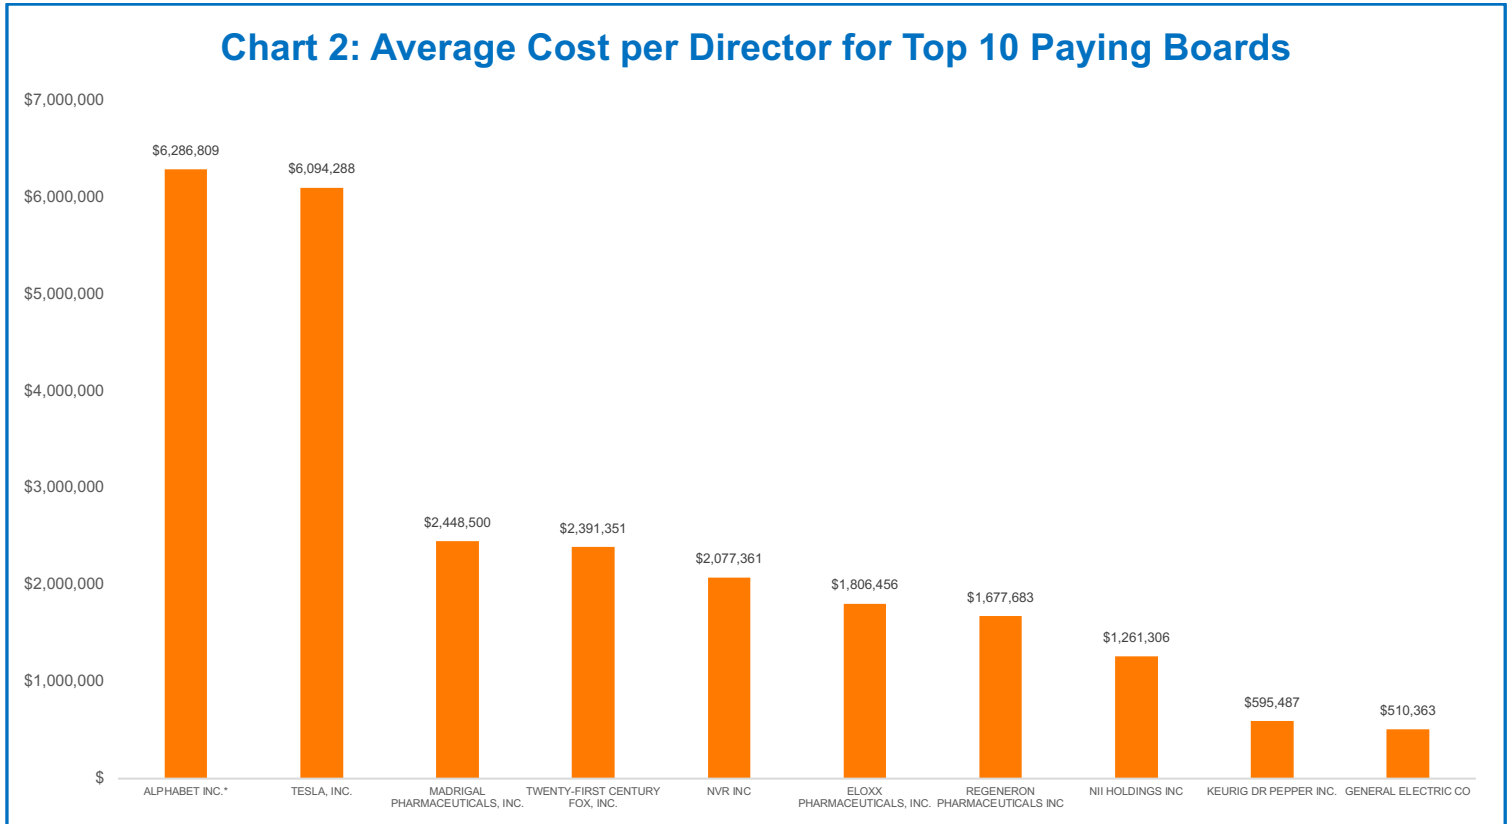

Annual Total Costs in the Millions - The top ten highest cost boards in the Russell 3000 spent from $9 million to $61 million in director costs in 2018, the latest year the data is available.

Chart 1 below displays has the details.

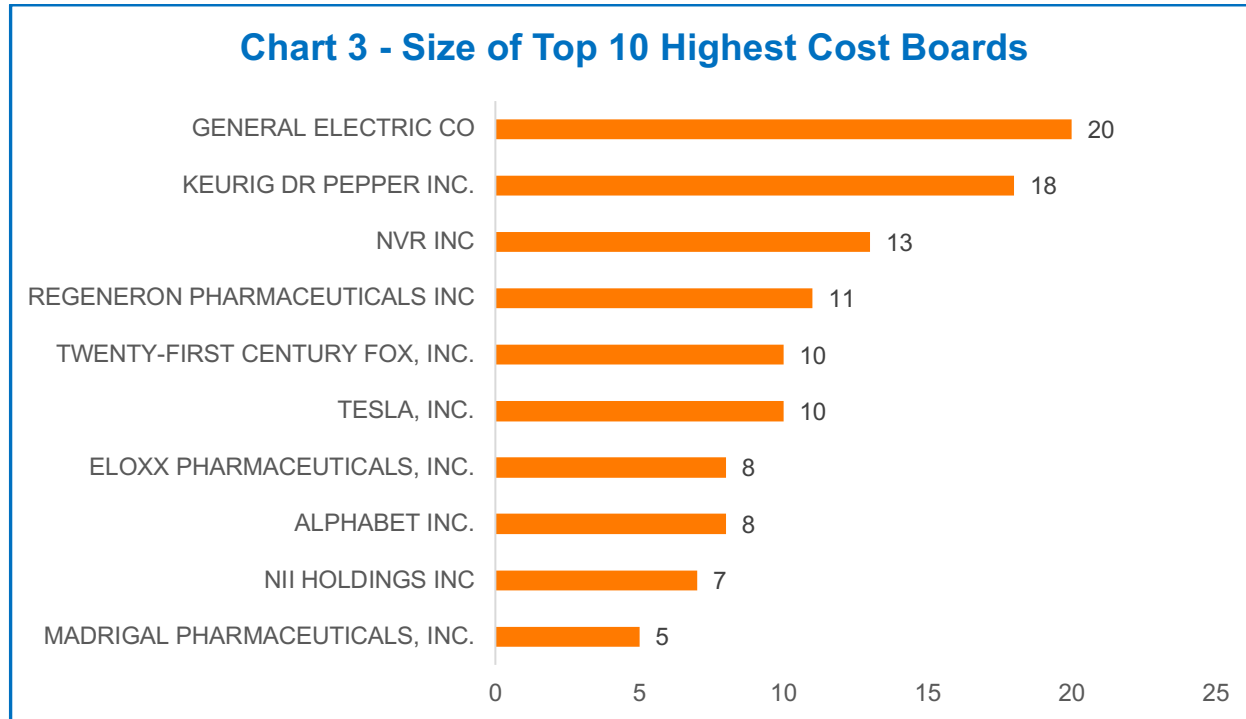

*One of Alphabet's board members, Diane Greene, was a Google employee in 2018 who did not receive compensation for her service as a board member in 2018. However, Alphabet reported her 2018 Google compensation of $47,502,388 as part of their 2018 total board costs.

Average Top 10 Director Pay Also in the Millions - Average compensation per director for the top ten highest paying Russell 3000 boards ranged from $510,000 for General Electric to $6.3 million for Alphabet.

Board Size Varies from 5 to 20 – Excluding employee directors who are not paid, the top ten highest boards had a wide range of directors.

For more information, email reprots@mylogiq.com